

DISTRIBUTION

Our papers cover local news, giving our readers information of a quality and depth not available from other sources!

It all equals the market you want!

The Cabinet Press reaches 65,250 decision-makers in the rapidly growing southern tier of the state of New Hampshire. Our readers turn to The Cabinet, Bedford Journal, Merrimack Journal and Hollis Brookline Journal each week for news and information they can count on to keep them informed as to what's going on within their community.

ABOUT US

The Cabinet Press began its history of service to the community in 1802. Owned and operated by Martha Rotch Manley's family for 200 years, the company was sold to McLean Publications of Manchester in April 2005. The company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Independent Publications.

Our objective as a weekly newspaper is to provide our readers with the information they need to make decisions affecting their schools, their towns, their taxes. Our commitment is to local news, and the people and events of Amherst, Bedford, Brookline, Hollis, Lyndeborough, Merrimack, Milford, Mont Vernon and Wilton. We provide coverage of local issues not available from other sources!
